UNDERSTAND THE POTENTIAL

Life is busy and time is precious. Spending time on your finances and planning for your future needs careful thought. We can help you unlock your wealth's full potential.

Whatever your situation or aspirations in life, a thoughtful approach to both investing and wealth planning can make your goals far more achievable.

The team at Nedbank Private Wealth has extensive experience of working with high-net-worth individuals, families and trustees around the world. We understand both the advantages and the complexities of wealth, and can help you and your family.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Whether your financial affairs are UK based or extend internationally, whether you are making your first investment for your own future or investing for the generations to come, our mission is to protect your wealth, advise you with integrity, and make your life easier.

As a bank, we can start supporting your finances from day one. And as a wealth manager, we can manage your wealth over the long term too. As part of a global financial services group, we provide all the security you need, as well as the ability to work across different jurisdictions and tax regimes. With the flexibility and personal service of a boutique, we can be nimble and responsive to your individual needs.

As an experienced investment manager, we take a truly global investment approach when managing portfolios. Our foreign exchange capabilities allow us to manage currency exposures and we have no home bias in our investment strategies.

You will benefit from decades of experience across our teams. Your discussions with our specialist investment, lending and wealth planning experts always include your private banker, who will implement our advice and maintain regular contact to track your progress towards your goals.

DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT

Our difference is hard to communicate. The best way to understand it is to experience it.

"From day one of opening my account, I have always received exceptional service from every single person within the Nedbank team. Always very responsive, helpful, and with great interpersonal skills. I would have no hesitation in recommending Nedbank Private Wealth."*

We are grateful that a significant number of our new clients come to us from existing client referrals.

It simply starts with a conversation. Until you choose to become a client, there are no commitments or charges.
